

COURSE TITLE	Creating a Food Safety Culture in Your School Webinar
DATES:	Thursday, December 17, 2015 (2:00 – 3:00 pm EST)
LOCATION:	Webinar
CONTACT:	If you have general questions about the workshop, please contact Susan Thompson at susan.thompson@dpi.nc.gov .
TARGET AUDIENCE	Information in this continuing education session is directed towards all school nutrition employees so please share with all schools in your School Food Authority.
COURSE OBJECTIVE	This webinar is part of a planned series of monthly ongoing continuing education for North Carolina school nutrition staff to support the School Nutrition professional standards continuing education requirements. All foodservice establishments including schools have a growing responsibility to ensure that proper food safety and sanitation practices are followed, thereby, safeguarding the health of their customers. This webinar explains best practices for creating a food safety culture that permeates the school nutrition environment.
COURSE CREDIT	A certificate will be issued to participants for 1 hour of continuing education.
MEALS & LODGING	Lunch will be provided both days; however, participants will be responsible for all additional related expenses of travel, lodging, meals, beverages, and snacks.
REGISTRATION & PAYMENT	All participants must register for the event and login to the session to receive a certificate for 1 contact hour of continuing education. To register, please send an email to NCSUfoodsafety@gmail.com that includes your first and last name and email address along with Food Safety Culture in the subject line. The email address is where the continuing education certificate will be sent after successful completion of the webinar. Registered participants will receive details on joining the session about 3 days prior to the event.
